Southern Democrat Objects to Mr. Hoar's Remarks on Webster.

Statues of General Stark and Daniel Web ster Are Received with Appropriate Ceremonies by Congress-House Talks on Currency.

By the United Press.

Washington, Dec. 20 .- The senate devoted the entire time of its sitting today to the addresses in connection with the acceptance and placing in the statuary hall of the capitol, of the marble ten in eulogy of Webster.

in relation to Mr. Webster, whose speeches, he said, were the literature songs of Burns were to the Scotchman. Up to the seventh of March, 1850, when he made his speech in the individual soul, then for the first time in the nation's history seemed to be in have resisted the dominion of Daniel Webster over New England until he provoked an encounter with the inexorable conscience of the Puritan. Mr. Hoar's concluding sentence was warmly applauded. It was: "He is the one foremost figure in our history between the day when Washington died and the day when Lincoln took the oath of

Mr. Morgan (Dem., Ala.) followed Mr. Hoar and took an opposite view of Mr. Webster's defence of the fugitive slave law, regarding it as the most conspicuous evidence of his moral courage, obeying the constitution of the United States rather than the clamor and sentiment of New England.

An urgent deficiency bill was passed appropriating "$300,000 to carry on the work of closing up the eleventh census and $100,000 to pay fees of jurors and witnesses in United States court."

The senate bill granting a pension of $100 a month to the widow of General Nathaniel P. Banks was unanimously agreed to on motion by Mr. Sickles (Dem., N. Y.)

TO OUR PATRONS:

Washburn-Crosby Co. wish to assure their many pat-rons that they will this year hold to their usual custom of milling STRICTLY OLD WHEAT until the new erop is fully cured. New wheat is now upon the market, and owing to the excessively dry weather many millers are of the opinion that it is already cured, and in proper condition for milling. Washburn-Crosby Co. will take no risks, and will allow the new wheat fully three months to mature before grinding.

This careful attention to every detail of milling has placed Washburn-Crosby Co.'s flour far above other brands.
